

(very) Selected Proust Resources - just for IRP. Of the hundreds (thousands?) of articles, books, websites, movies, clips, readings ..., I list here just a few of my favorites – suitable for a dip into the Proust universe.

Books/articles about Proust's Life

Critical Lives: Proust by Adam Watt (Reaktion Books, 2013)

Proust: the Search by Benjamin Taylor

Books/articles/notes about Proust's Work in General

Marcel Proust's Search for Lost Time: A Reader's Guide to the Remembrance of Things Past by Patrick Alexander (New York, Vintage, 2007). A guide to the novel.

Monsieur Proust's Library by Anka Muhlstein

Proust's Way: A Field Guide to In Search of Lost Time by Roger Shattuck

Paintings in Proust by Eric Karpeles

Historical/Social backgrounds

For the Soul of France: Culture Wars in the Age of Dreyfus by Frederick Brown

Videos

"Proust's Paris", "Paintings in Proust", "Proust's Musical World". "Remembrance of Things Proust" (developed and hosted by Larry Bensky at Bard College.) Rare and excellent

<http://www.bard.edu/radioproust/multimedia/>

"A Writer's Life" A first-rate documentary by William C. Carter. At New York Public Library by request.

Audible – reading of the Search.

I like the reading by John Rowe. Only the first are available (SW, WBG, GW). The last 4 were removed by Audible; I don't know why. Copyright?